

FalconFlight

Cyber Insurance Policy

WHY FALCON

- AM Best Financial Strength Rating of A+ (Superior), a Financial Size Category of XV (Stable Outlook), and an S&P Credit Rating of A+
- Dedicated In-House Claims Handling
- Veteran Underwriting leadership with experience providing data driven insurance solutions
- Highly customizable policy form that addresses the diverse needs of our clients
- Can provide a blended cyber policy that includes Tech E&O and Professional Services
- Cyber Hotline managed 24/7 by Falcon's preferred breach coach

CAPACITY & CAPABILITIES

- $10M in Limits on Primary & Excess Basis
- Up to 3B in revenue
- Non-Admitted Capabilities
- First Party Coverages:
 - Breach Response and Crisis Management Services
 - Data Recovery and Hardware Replacement Costs
 - Cyber Extortion
 - Cyber Crime
 - Business Interruption
 - Dependent Business Interruption
- Third Party Coverages:
 - Privacy & Security
 - Professional Services
 - Technology Products & Services
 - Media
 - Regulatory Proceedings

TARGET CLASSES

-  Financial & Banking Institutions
-  Technology Providers
-  Retail
-  Construction
-  Manufacturing
-  Consulting
-  Marketing

COVERAGE HIGHLIGHTS

- "Pay on behalf" coverage for cyber extortion
- Media Liability covers both print and digital content
- Data Breach Insurance is not limited to just technology providers
- Hardware coverage is built into Data Recovery Expense on a non sublimited basis
- Restoration costs are included in the data recovery expense definition
- Voluntary shutdown is built into BI and is not subject to a time cap
- 180 day period of restoration

SUBMISSION CONTACT

Kevin Mashavejian
Assistant Vice President
kevin.mashavejian@falconriskservices.com
917.440.7261

BUSINESS LEADER

Mary Spicer
SVP, Head of Cyber and Tech E&O
mary.spicer@falconriskservices.com
516.448.2182

